

What should I already know?

- The 7 continents.
- That we live in Europe and in England.
- The names of some countries around the world.

Vocabulary

Aboriginal people	first people to live in Australia
Amazon Rainforest	large forest with a lot of rainfall - largest in the world continent	large area of land split up into countries country	large area of land ran by a government culture	different ways of life
currency	type of money used in a certain country desert	sandy, hot, dry place
didgeridoo	Aboriginal musical instrument
Eiffel Tower	famous tower in France forest	large area with a lot of trees
Lake Victoria	largest lake in Africa
Mona Lisa	one of the most famous paintings in the world - now in a museum in France
Mount Everest	tallest mountain in the world
Rio Carnival	carnival in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
Statue of Liberty	very important statue that is found in America vineyard	where grapes for wine are grown
White House	where the president of USA lives – it is in the city Washington

Geographical Skills and Fieldwork

- To name the seven continents.
- To locate the different continents on a world map.
- To name a country from each continent.
- To locate their given country on a world map.
- To describe some of the geographical features and characteristics of France, Kenya, Brazil, Australia, USA and China.

What will I know by the end of the unit?

What is it like in France?

snail

Mona Lisa

croissants

Eiffel Tower

Tour de France

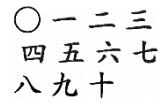

What is it like in China?

Chinese New Year

panda

numbers

Great Wall of China

chopsticks

Mount Everest

What is it like in Australia?

Bondi beach

koala

didgeridoo

Sydney Opera House

What is it like in Kenya?

Lake Victoria

hut

grassland

What is it like in USA?

pinwheel

White House

Statue of Liberty

desert

What is it like in Brazil?

football

Rio Carnival

Amazon Rainforest