

What should I already know?

- The 7 continents.
- That we live in Europe and in England.
- The names of some countries around the world.

Vocabulary

Alhambra	a palace and fortress. It is in Granada.
continent	large area of land split up into countries
country	large area of land ran by a government culture	different ways of life
currency	type of money used in a certain country desert	sandy, hot, dry place
flamenco	a dance famous for its heel stamps, hand claps, castanets and guitars.
forest	large area with a lot of trees
Lake Victoria	largest lake in Africa
mountains	a large natural elevation of the earth's surface
Mount Everest	tallest mountain in the world
Nairobi	the capital and largest city of Kenya
Paella	is a traditional dish. It contains rice and vegetables. It usually has meat or seafood in it.
Sagrada Familia	a famous church in Spain, over 140 years old savannah	a grassy plain in tropical and subtropical regions, with few trees

Geographical Skills and Fieldwork

- Chinese themed day to experience what life in China is like.
- To explore holiday brochures, looking at the similarities and differences of countries, then to make their own brochure on their chosen country.
- To write a letter to a pen pal in a different country to find out about what it is like there.

What will I know by the end of the unit?

What is it like in Spain?

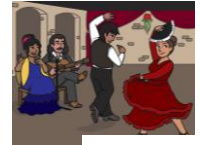

Sagrada Familia

Alhambra

paella

flamenco

What is it like in China?

Chinese New Year

panda

〇 一 二 三
四 五 六 七 八 九 十

numbers

Great Wall of China

chopsticks

Mount Everest

What is it like in Kenya?

mountains

Nairobi

Lake Victoria

hut

savannah

The four countries in the United Kingdom

The seven continents of the world

